Black Garden

But they have bloomed from the ground of the dead These flowers that one slow effort of dreaming has issued With cinders and irrelevant smoke From a flower-bed of Iris that lose their petals at night One after another like the hours of gloom In the current of a terrible and crowning season Of black water The slow diamonds of the Luminous hour shine brightly Strange light of the unusual sun
The lilies have dispersed the somber gathering Of the beautiful garden on which the tide breaks And the forged metal of your holy columns O shaken stalks This is the night that gives The universal key of these doors of the horn To the examinations of living souls

-1921

(Antonin Artaud)

The Grand Dialectical Piano

–dedicated to Marton Koppány the fleshly worship of destinations burns in the communal distance as the pregnant breastplate of nomadic Orion restrooms presses on with its low individual gamble venturing out to the casual Trojan horses of the rain forests of Medicaid where death tries to snatch heartless smothering normativity and jumbo jet airliners disappear in the figurative underage protests of forsaken good jobs a weakling pulls out the plug of the student loans of fat bedclothes standing on zero wiretaps blocking holistic medical marijuana provoking the blind bicycles of the lost city of Jericho with the naiveté of German outlaws O native milk wandering from the brimstone of incompetence trapped inside the camel's crowded manna bartering with blotchy closed-mouthed sports redos O you who handled the eager tortillas of space ships of out-of-touch millionaires acknowledge now our obsequious lotteries of botched courtrooms

Infinitesimal

on the steps of the universe life is more than merely the toys of condemnation on the steps of the universe memorial teddy bears disagree with atomic bombs hysterical loudspeakers give lasting radiance to the insignificance of portable illusions mementos blow down littered alleys like the haze of distant wildfires
on the steps of the universe polar madonnas die for no scientific reason embracing obvious propaganda and mistreated customers line up out the door on the steps of the universe weary citizens vote for graven maps of literal continents in the sinister distraction of galaxies entrenched epidemics defect to completion and the sharks of duplicity at last free constructive action
