A line from Donald Trump

The First Emperor of Qin sported a striking headpiece of human flesh as a show of his glory. Teamed it with a figure-hugging dress that some reporters thought was made from bacon or, perhaps, prosciutto. Scaly warts covered the few exposed portions of his body. I have sex dreams about random people, he said. I will build a great wall to keep them out.

conditioner noises

tree. Natural & unnatural. Manichean heresy.

Cargomasters, helicopters. I weave my way through khaki convoys

heading south along
the highway. & no
doubt north though
I have no call to go

that way. The war games over, the Coalition of the Willing won—& so they should, since that is what this is all about. A formal forties war, with scales

weighted in their direction, a P.R. exercise.

& only themselves to fight against. It is the only war they win.

Cross-contamination occurs. The prolonged deaths of inmates mean a relative disjuncture between the bleak days of the Cold War & asthma due to inhaled chemical fumes. Any image given may be a representation, but many empirical projects involve estimation with clustered data. Yet another email from an FBI agent requesting speaker fees will take you back to Afghanistan. The typewriters are a bit of an old-fashioned juxtaposition.

Meanwhile, here is the news from white-wing Amerika.

Approving a petition from the small but extremely influential town of Borg Assimilatus, the High Court has agreed that a restraining order should be issued to prevent the dissemination of any allusion requiring more than five nanoseconds to comprehend. A decision as to whether a temporary injunction against similes should be made permanent is expected within the week but the apprehended violence order placed on metaphors has been extended for another six months. Proper nouns apart from those with a geographical intent are now prohibited. The artist formerly known as (peace symbol) is expected to sue for damages. Verbs have become less tense since a curfew for adverbs was announced. Ampersands are banned since they might be seen as a pictograph of a person performing oral sex upon themselves. The effects of pheromones are under investigation by the body formerly known as the IOC anti-doping commission. Tonight's weather report will not be given. There were far too many isobaric highs to meet the guidelines. As part of an on-going commitment to education month this station's closing inspirational message was to have been brought to you by the letter Q; but acting on legal advice that any letter presenting a protuberance could be classified as public obscenity it will now be sponsored by those wonderful people who gave you Iraq and the no to same sex marriage travelling medicine and minstrel show.

Contrary to a rumor published in an online rag, I am not a communist, nor was I killed by CIA operatives. Am a dedicated Phantom, a key component in the production of viscous rayon, come in a silver-foil stamped box, perfect for gift-giving. Les impulsions en coincidence ainsi obtenues sont de deux sortes: synchrotron radiation

We have changed our party policy so that there is now no fetter that prevents us selling uranium, improving trade links, or teaching more Mandarin. This is an act of self-indulgence which highlights the need for ongoing reform in the next two to three hours. Communities in particularly—based on past experience—vulnerable areas are being advised to move into designated target areas. Light rail could be a pivotal issue.

In any world in which Conservative politics &

the profit motive dominate, there will never be a need to justify the turning of grain storage sites into missile silos or nuclear waste repositories.

Napoleon's Egyptian campaign

There is this glass arcade that leads to the Gare du Lyon. Most of the shops sell leather.
Two internet telephones & an outdoor/indoor café

punctuate the open space. Vietnamese youths play pachinko

A dog barks. The train is leaving Platform 7.

e-corpses

A small, compact figure surges into view. You can see her dancing in the careers magazine for scientists.

An American is a prehistoric fish fossil, collected by my grandfather. All literature deals with tension & conflict.

A NUCLEAR WASTE SHIP HEADS TOWARD HAWAII—it did not come out but the blue water is right there.

Convicted killer asks for probation in '04 Redlands slaying.
I've asked for some of your time to discuss the nature of the threat.

Chinese high society has turned

The film comes to an end.
She switches the hotplate on.

He stares at the night sky.
Did you see the light, she asks.

Now they can hear a helicopter approaching. It makes her body sway, gently at first & then more jerkily as the volume increases. The landscape is empty. Or soon will be.

the veil drops

A master terrorist autographed by Newt Gingrich is hiding somewhere in a herd of elephants.

This provokes a dissonance that involves political parties, sport footwear outlets, a trip to & from Campá, the insatiability of consumerism, Washington's alliances in the Middle East, a text in deep charcoal, being led in mock triumph through the streets of Rome, the occasional American alt-rocker group, the Baader-Meinhof phenomenon, & an odd optimism, as well as more than three million pages of digitized New Zealand newspapers.

On one of those pages, approximately two million, five hundred in—which puts it at the beginning of the 1990s—a precursor to clickbait claims that a herd of elephants, autographed by a master terrorist, may be hiding somewhere within Newt Gingrich.
